It is a classic blend of Chardonnay, Pinot Noir, and Pinot Meunier, offering bright citrus, pear, and white peach flavors alongside a creamy, nutty finish.

$200

Moet Chandon Champagne, France

Generous and tasty, white fruit notes including pear, white peach and apple, unfurl on the nose, with peach and apple, unfurl on the palate, in the company of fine, light bubbles.

$550

Dom Perignon 2013 Champagne, France

Incredibly complex nose of dried green apples, grapefruits pith, preserved lemons, toast, layered, refined and so sleek, with salty minerality and a toasty edge to the dried citrus. Structured and tense, yet elegant and almost endless.

$220

Veuve Cliquot Champagne, France

Grapes from as many as 50 to 60 different crus are used for the blending of yellow label. The predominance of pinot noir provides the core structure of Clicquot, while a touch of meunier rounds out the blend. Chardonnay adds the elegance and finesse essential to a perfectly balanced champagne. Outstanding Provence Rose with crunchy red fruit, delicate florals and a dry, crisp elegant palate.

$330

Ruinart Blanc de Blancs Champagne, France

Fresh fruit notes, particularly ripe citrus fruits, nose with notes of white flowers and white peaches. Supple and fine bubbles, very rounded body supported by excellent freshness.

$990

Krug Grande Cuvee

Blend of 195 wines from 12 different years, the youngest of which is from 2014, while the oldest dates to 1998. Light golden colour and fine, vivacious bubbles, holding a promise of pleasure. Grilled notes and flavours of almond paste, quine, lemon, limoncello and dried fruits

$990

Armond de Brignac Brut Gold Champagne, France

With a taste score ranking no.1 among world's best champagnes, comprised of 40% chardonnay, 40% pinot noir and 20% Pinot notes, a racy fruit character, with subtle brioche accents, and a long creamy finish
